From herein, the phrase “the camp” refers to The Texas, the board of directors of The Texas, the directors of Stars of the Texas Drama Camp, and the camp counselors of Stars of the Texas Drama Camp.

The fees quoted are a non-refundable registration fee which includes a program of instruction, supervision, camp approved expenses, and craft materials not including snacks.

The undersigned acknowledges that he/she is the parent or guardian of the camper designated above and has full authority to enroll the child in a summer camp program. The undersigned further acknowledges that the information contained in this application is true and accurate.

No allowance or reduction in the tuition will be given for a camper’s late arrival or early withdrawal.

Authority is hereby granted without limitation to the Texas and its assigns to make decisions and/or authorize treatment of the above named camper with regard to all medical, surgical, or dental matters that may arise while the camper is in the care of Stars of the Texas including, but not limited to, all matters regarding hospitalization, surgery, injections, medications, and/or anesthesia.

If it is necessary to obtain off-camp medical or surgical or dental services for the camper, such expenses shall be paid by the parent and/or guardian. The parent(s) and/or guardian(s) are responsible for any out-of-camp medical, surgical, hospital, and/or allergy expenses incurred as result of pre-existing medical conditions. Parent(s) and/or guardian(s) are also responsible for providing adequate quantities of necessary medications and allergy serums to the camp in pharmacy container with doctor’s instructions at the time the session is scheduled to begin.

The camp is not responsible for damage or loss of musical instruments, clothing, personal effects, or personal equipment used during the camper’s stay. The camp specifically advises campers not to bring jewelry or other valuables to camp.

During the camp session, the camper and his/her parent(s) and or guardian(s) agree to abide by the camp rules and regulations governing health, safety, and welfare of the campers and the camp community. Specifically, (a) the possession or use of tobacco, narcotics, liquor, or other intoxicants or non-prescription drugs is expressly prohibited both on and off the camp premises; and (b) campers may not leave the camp without express permission from the camp director. Violations of these rules or other reasonable regulations will result in dismissal from the camp without tuition refund. The camp reserves the right to dismiss any camper whose conduct is unsatisfactory or inimical to the camp’s and the camp community’s best interest without a tuition refund.

The camp program may include public performances and permission is hereby given for the camper to take part in such performance on and off camp grounds without compensation. The camp may use photographs, statements, articles, names, music, art, films, video tapes taken of the camper or made by the camper in promoting the camp and camp-related activities through advertising, publication, and/or exhibition.

CDC recommended Covid 19 guidelines will be followed.
